

TENURE-TRACK FACULTY POSITION ENTREPRENEURSHIP- Graduate Programs

IE University's Business School www.ie.edu invites qualified candidates in the area of Entrepreneurship to apply for tenure track positions for our graduate programs at the Assistant Professor level in the Entrepreneurship department, beginning September 2019.

The successful candidates will be able to publish in top-tier peer-reviewed international journals, to interact and work closely with faculty from other disciplines, and to provide intellectual leadership in their area. They will also be able to teach high level MBA and executive courses to international students. We are looking for candidates that can complement our existing research and teaching capabilities in areas such as technology and entrepreneurship, social entrepreneurship, family firms, entrepreneurial venturing, and entrepreneurial business development. Applicants will have earned a PhD from a recognized school in a relevant discipline (entry-level candidates can be close to completion). Previous experience in teaching is a plus, Spanish proficiency is desirable, but not required. Salary for this position will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

IE University is an Equal Opportunity Employer and strongly encourages applications from individuals who will expand the ethnic and gender diversity of our faculty.

Applications should include a cover letter and vita, a one-page research statement, a statement of teaching philosophy, copies of recent publications, contact information for three references, and evidence of teaching excellence (e.g., teaching evaluations). Shortlisted candidates will provide reference letters when contacted.

We will be holding interviews at the Academy of Management meeting in Atlanta in August. To be considered for an interview slot, please submit your application in electronic form with the subject heading Entrepreneurship by July 13, 2018. The search will continue until the position is filled. We will receive applications until the end of October 2018.
