

TENURE-TRACK FACULTY POSITION ENTREPRENEURSHIP- Undergraduate Programs

IE University's Business School www.ie.edu invites qualified candidates to apply for tenure track positions for our undergraduate programs at the Assistant Professor level in the Entrepreneurship department, beginning September 2020.

The successful candidate will be expected to publish in top-tier peer-reviewed international journals, to teach undergraduate level courses, to interact and work closely with faculty from other disciplines, and to provide intellectual leadership in their area.

We are looking for candidates that can complement our existing research and teaching capabilities in areas such as technology and entrepreneurship, social entrepreneurship, family firms, entrepreneurial venturing, and entrepreneurial business development. Applicants will have earned a PhD from a recognized school in a relevant discipline (entry-level candidates can be close to completion). Spanish proficiency is desirable, but not required. Salary for this position will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

IE University is an Equal Opportunity Employer and strongly encourages applications from individuals who will expand the ethnic and gender diversity of our faculty.

Applications should include a cover letter and vita, a one-page research statement, a statement of teaching philosophy, copies of recent publications, contact information for three references, and evidence of teaching excellence (e.g., teaching evaluations). Short listed candidates will provide reference letters.

We will be holding interviews at the Academy of Management meeting in Boston in August. To be considered for an interview slot, please submit your application in electronic form with the subject heading Entrep Undergrad by July 14, 2019. The search will continue until the position is filled. We will receive applications until the end of October 2019.
