BUSTING MYTHS

MYTH

Feminists can only be women and they hate men

Feminists cannot be religious

Feminists are just career women that do not support marriage, hate sex and will never have children

Feminists strive to be more powerful than men

Feminism is not necessary anymore. It is also aggressive and very exaggerated

REALITY

We should all be feminist, so it is possible to create a better world. Feminism cares also about men's struggles. Hate towards men is called misandry, if feminism did so, it would be hypocritical.

No matter the religion, people are people and deserve equality. Feminism wants each person to be able to make their own decisions. It does not want to destroy religion.

Feminists desire family as any other person would. Regarding marriage, they just want their spouse to carry equal weight, they seek balance.

Feminists do not want women to rule the world, they just want everyone to be equal no matter gender, sex, race... Feminists who support bias achievement are not true feminists.

Sexual harassment, child marriage, discrimination, female genital mutilation, the salary gap, gender abuse, body stereotypes, etc, still happens every day.
