

Tenure Track Faculty Positions – Experience Design and UX

IE University's School of Human Sciences and Technology HST invites qualified applicants for full-time, tenure-track faculty positions in Experience Design and UX (User Experience) beginning September 2020 in Madrid. Relevant, high-impact research and knowledge creation is a critical part of the mission of the school, and we are currently seeking to build a team of foundational research faculty as part of the next phase of our expansion.

We are open to candidates from diverse academic backgrounds including, for example: design, marketing, communication, software design and development, computer science.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Our faculty are expected to publish in peer-reviewed journals, present in international venues, teach courses at the Bachelor and/or Master level, and provide intellectual leadership within HST in their areas of expertise (and more broadly, across IE University). Salaries will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants will have earned a Ph.D. from a recognized school in a relevant discipline. Candidates should have training and active research agendas that make contact with one or more core areas of Experience Design and UX such as:

- Experience Design
- Service Design
- Customer Experience (CX)
- Human-centered Design
- Innovation Methodologies
- Design Thinking
- User Experience (UX)
- User Interface (UI)
- Human Computer Interaction (HCI)

HOW TO APPLY:

Applications should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, research and teaching statement and three confidential recommendation letters.

ABOUT HST AND IE UNIVERSITY:

As one of the five schools of IE University, HST uniquely integrates fields spanning human sciences and technology. We are an innovative and rapidly growing school whose mission is multi-disciplinary knowledge generation and the education of a new generation of professionals via degree programs that break-down traditional academic boundaries, blur the line between the classroom and the workplace, and prepare graduates for success in the new economy.

IE University is an internationally recognized institution originally founded as a business school. The university is comprised of schools of Business, Human Sciences & Technology, Law, Global and Public Affairs, and Architecture & Design. We consider ourselves the most international institution of higher education with approximately 85% of our students coming from outside Spain and typically over 120 countries represented on campus. Our Madrid postgraduate campus is situated in the financial district of this vibrant, cosmopolitan capital city of over 5 million people. In 2020, we will open the doors to our new undergraduate Learning Tower – a vertical campus which will be one of the 5 towers occupying the skyline of Madrid. Our undergraduate Segovia campus is located in the historic quarter of this World-Heritage city, 30 minutes by high-speed train from Madrid.
