

IE University
SUSTAINABILITY COMMITTEE

IE UNIVERSITY SUSTAINABILITY COMMITTEE

The IE University Sustainability Committee brings together senior leadership from across the institution to provide strategic guidance on sustainability priorities and performance. Meeting periodically throughout the year, the committee reviews progress, aligns sustainability efforts with institutional goals, and supports the integration of environmental, social, and governance considerations into decision-making. Through cross-functional collaboration, it helps ensure that sustainability remains embedded at the highest levels of IE University.

MEMBERS:

Santiago Iñiguez de Onzoño García, Executive President, IE University

Diego del Alcázar Benjumea, Chief Executive Officer, IE University

Juan José Güemes Barrios, Senior Vice President of Strategy and Corporate Development

Mar Hurtado de Mendoza Crespo, Vice President of Global Recruitment & Marketing

Macarena Rosado Corral, General Counsel

Isabela del Alcázar Benjumea, Chief Purpose and Sustainability Officer